ATR VERDICT: BORG secured a victory by a length over an extended mile at Wolverhampton earlier in the month and he was only put up 3lb for that triumph. The five-year-old remains in the same grade here and could be the one to beat. Alazwar has finished in the first two on each of his last three starts and could go well off a 1lb higher mark than his latest second at Wolverhampton, while Desert Doctor can be in the mix for the minor honours after his runner-up effort at Lingfield.

Top Tip: BORG (1)

8 (8)			SUSPICION (IRE) b c Make Believe - Neigh Lass	3 8 - 10	T E Whelan Ollie Sangster	-

ATR VERDICT: SILENT AGE is a beautifully-bred son of Dubawi and his pedigree suggests that he should relish this trip to start his career. He represents the in-form Charlie Appleby yard and could make an impression on his debut. His stablemate Musical Dancer may prove to be the main threat, as he is a full-brother to the Group 3 winner Laugh Aloud, and it would be no surprise to see him thereabouts, especially if the market speaks in his favour. Any money for the 65,000gns purchase Suspicion would also be of interest.

ATR VERDICT: VENETIAN STYLE changed hands for 1,800,000gns as a foal and the well-bred son of Dubawi is related to plenty of winners, including the Group 2 winner I Can Fly. Any market confidence behind him over his stablemate Notable Speech would add even more appeal in this contest. As for the latter, he could also easily get into contention on his first outing. Parkland brings the best form to the table after his third at Chelmsford on his debut.

ATR VERDICT: Love De Vega may have won comfortably last time out at Chelmsford, but he still has almost two lengths to make up with HIERONYMUS from their meeting over C&D earlier in the month, and George Baker's charge is taken to uphold that form on his way to another victory. Fourth in that contest was Revolutionise, who has been running with plenty of credit lately but has been winless since November 2022.

ATR VERDICT: A comfortable winner over C&D last time out, PREMIERE BEAUTY could have more to come off a 7lb higher mark and she can strike again, despite having to overcome the widest stall. Not outside the first two on each of her last four starts, Habooba is another contender on the step up in trip, along with the consistent Cotai Vision.

Long Handicap: Haku 8 - 7

ATR VERDICT: HAKU has returned to form in recent months and he is unlucky not to be arriving on a hat-trick, having been narrowly denied at Southwell last time out. The five-year-old has a good record at this venue and he should have too much for the capable Teumessias Fox, as well as Oneforthegutter, who bounced back with a determined success at Southwell last month.

ATR VERDICT: HEERATHETRACK landed a similar event at Chelmsford a fortnight ago and Mark Usher's charge ought to hold every chancing of following up on these terms. Time Patrol was unable to reel in the winner at this venue last time but Tony Carroll's charge can give another good account of himself, along with Indie Skies, who should fare better eased in class.

ATR VERDICT: This looks like a good opportunity for TAMARIS to regain the winning thread, having been narrowly denied at Lingfield last month. Joe Tizzard's gelding was raised 1lb for that effort, but he is effectively 1lb lower here with Joe Bradnam able to claim 7lb, and this does not appear to be the deepest of contests. The booking of Rossa Ryan aboard Baileys Warrior catches the eye and she is worth a second look, along with Longuerue, who hit the frame at Chelmsford a fortnight ago.
